“An apprentice brings a huge benefit to any organisation. The advice that I would give to other potential employers of apprentices is that if you are able to have an apprentice, you will not be disappointed. Instead you will be inspired and humbled by the situation”.

The Foyer Federation

“Small organisations can be reluctant to take on the responsibility of an apprentice as they think it might overstretch their already limited resources. However, working through the consortium makes it easy! The support they have offered us and our apprentices has been fantastic, so our advice is – go for it!”

Merton Voluntary Service Council

“We decided to employ an apprentice because it is cost effective for us as a company.”
