Award in Supporting Teaching & Learning in Schools Level 2

Course Description:

This qualification is an introduction to the information and knowledge needed to work in primary, secondary or special schools. It covers the many varied roles that full and part time support staff may fulfil including administrative roles, site support roles, technical roles and volunteers, as well as those roles that work directly with children and young people in the school environment.

Mandatory:

- Child and young person development
- Safeguarding the welfare of children and young people
- Communication and professional relationships with children, young people and adults
- Equality, diversity and inclusion in work with children and young people
- Schools as organisations

Entry Requirements:

You will be assessed prior to starting the course and should have good English language written skills. You are required to have a minimum level 1 functional skill to cope with the demands of assignment writing. In addition all students will be required to obtain an Enhanced DBS check.

Assessments:

This course is assessed by learners completing written assignments, a portfolio of evidence which consists of class exercises, case studies, homework tasks, such as reflective journal entries, and short reports. Students will also begin to develop display and research skills. Work is internally assessed and externally moderated by City & Guilds.

Training

Training will take place in a classroom environment in group sizes of 10 – 15 learners. You will need to purchase Supporting Teaching & Learning In Schools Level 2 text books.

Duration

The duration of the course is 8 weeks, with 1 day in the classroom. You will be expected to undertake independent study to consolidate your learning.

Progression

You can apply for teaching support roles in schools, or go onto higher level qualifications including the Level 3 Certificate in Supporting Teaching & Learning in Schools.
