

Free Careers Advice

London Learning Consortium (LLC)

The National Careers Service makes it easy to find up-to-date, impartial information on careers, skills and the labour market, with professional advice to help you to make the right choices. The service is free and available locally at London Learning Consortium (LLC):

The National Careers Service can help you:

- Understand the job market and explore different careers
- Find out more about different careers and what qualifications and skills you require
- Review your skills and how to improve them
- Make the best use of high-quality career related tools
- Develop your CV and improve your interview techniques
- Explore courses appropriate to your career aspirations
- Find out about funding to support your learning aims

You can find us at: London Learning Consortium (LLC), Christopher Wren Yard, 119 High St, Croydon CR0 1QG

To make an appointment, please call Ray Quintal on: 07982 911554 or email: ray@careers-academy.com