

Games Development Study Programme

Dive into one of the fastest-growing and most exciting creative industries: Games Development.

If you are 16–18 (or up to 24 with an EHCP) and passionate about coding, game design, and shaping the future of interactive entertainment, this programme is for you!

What you will learn...

In Level 2 and Level 3 Games Development, learn to create 2D and 3D games. Level 2 covers coding, graphics, and game mechanics, while Level 3 focuses on advanced coding, 3D modelling, and professional game design projects

Main benefits:

- Explore careers in the video games industry.
- Develop skills in storytelling, character design and level design.
- Work towards RSL Technical Media Production Level 2 & progression to Level 3 (Games Development Pathway).
- Achieve GCSE grade 4 or above in English and/or Maths.
- Qualifies you for progression onto a Technical Media Production Level 3 (Games Pathway) course.

Entry requirements:

- Eligible to work in England.
- Aged 16 to 18 (or up to 24 with an EHCP).
- A previous Level 1 qualification and/or GCSE Grades 1-3 - subject to interview.
